Statewide 1972

The Folk Dance Federation of California would like to invite you to attend the 1972 Statewide Folk Dance Festival in Sacramento, California. The big three day activity is scheduled for the Memorial Day weekend - - May 26, 27 and 28.

Our State Capitol has been selected for the event, and Sacramento is ready to receive the throng of dancers expected. The lovely Mansion Inn has been selected for the Festival Headquarters. It is only one block from the Memorial Auditorium, where most of the activities will take place.

We have planned a weekend full of dance activities. We have left Monday, May 29 (Memorial Day) as a day to enjoy historic Sacramento. Sutter's Fort and the new redevelopment of "Old Sacramento" are only two of the fascinating things to visit in the Camellia Capitol.

Registration will take place in the lobby of the Sacramento Memorial Auditorium (16th and J Streets). Pre-registration will save you both time and money.

Costumes of North Brittany

(Refer to the May sketches in the 1972 Folk Dance Costume Calendar for the original illustrations of a costume of N. Brittany.)

WOMAN'S COIFFE - DINAN, NORTHERN BRITTANY, FRANCE

Each canton, and sometimes each parish, has its own traditional costume, and the variety in the women's clothes, especially in their headdress, is astonishing. Around Treguier the headdresses have wings and in the Glazik country the girls wear small pointed kerchiefs with broad chinstraps. At Pont-Aven the "wings" are of lace. There is a light and fragile-looking kerchief worn in Auray, and in the Bigouden country the tallest hats are worn.

The Bretons speak a Celtic language which is closely related to Welsh. They are fond of music and of dancing, and many of their popular dances are accompanied by the Breton bagpipes at festivals.

Directions for making the Coiffe of Dinan, Brittany

Materials to make coiffe are all white: 1/2 yard plain batiste or percale, 1 yard eyelet embroidered cotton, 1/3 yard crocheted edging 1-1/2" wide, 2 yards crocheted edging 1/2" wide, 1 yard seam tape, 1 yard narrow ribbon - 1/2" or less, 3-1/4 to 3-1/2 yards taffeta ribbon 2" wide.

Under Cap

White cotton eyelet with crocheted lace trim 1-1/2" wide across front edge. Cut cap 11-1/2" wide and 8-1/2" at longest part in center. Make a casing around curved edge by finishing with seam tape and turning edge under. Stitch on dotted line, 1/2" from fold, but leave open at front edge. Fasten a piece of 1/2" ribbon, 15" long to each front corner. Thread them through casing to center and pull through hole of eyelet to outside of cap at X. Topstitch lace trim across front, turning ends of lace under and stitching flat. At right front corner, attach end of a 1 yard length of white ribbon 2" wide.

To put on, pull up narrow ribbon in casing and tie so cap is curved to fit the top of head. Bring wide ribbon under chin, letting loop lie on outside, with end hanging underneath it.

Upper Cap

The upper cap has two parts, both heavily starched, stiff enough to hold its shape.

Part A is the "cock's-comb" made from a piece of plain fabric 18" long by 8" wide. Fold through the center lengthwise and trim to 1" wide at one end, slanting to full 4" at the other. Make 2 or 3 rows of gathers close to the slanted edge. Pull gathers up to measure 3", which will give the piece a fan shape. Form the folded edge into fluted curves, using pencils or wooden doweling to shape when ironing.

Part B is the "Tricorne", made of eyelet fabric, 31" long by 11" wide. Fold crosswise, mark X with tailor's chalk or thread, 3-1/4" from fold on both layers of one of long sides. Sew narrow crocheted edging (1/2") along the cut edges except for space between the marks.

Insert the "cock's-comb", along the unfinished edges between the marks, and seam the gathered edge of the "cock's-comb" to Part B so the wide end is at the X mark. Take a 2-1/4 to 2-1/2 yard length of 2" ribbon, place center at base of "cock's-comb", where narrow end joins fold of Part B. Bring the ribbon around the seam and form a large bow about 10 to 12" wide at the point marked X.

Using hat or corsage pins, fasten the long ends of Part B so the center of each end meets the base of "cock's-comb" half way from X to top. Then spread sides apart and set on top of under-cap, with "cock's-comb" at back. Front edge of Part B extends very slightly beyond front edge of under-cap. Fasten with more pins so "tricorne" sides are held to under-cap just above the corners where ribbon is attached.

A DREAM REALIZED

The word "spectacular" is defined in the dictionary as an unusual exhibition worthy of notice; something adapted to excite wonder or admiration.

The First Mini Concert, produced and directed by Millie von Konsky, was that kind of a spectacular. Those who missed it (March 19, 1972) will regret it, and can only hope they will be able to attend the Second Mini Concert.

We saw folk dancers from the Los Angeles area, from Watsonville, the Peninsula, San Francisco, Woodland, Sacramento, Santa Rosa, Napa, and of course, the Bay Area -- all thoroughly enjoying the colorful concert and looking forward to the folk dance party immediately after.

It was a pleasure to see and to hear the magnificent voice of Nate Moore, who came up from his home in La Canada to narrate the concert, as a special favor to Millie.

The program consisted of dances by the Jr. Dancers International and Dance Arts of Oakland, as guest performers. It covered countries of America, the Ukraine, Korea, Scotland, Africa (truly something different), Serbia, Bulgaria, the Philippines, Austria, Bavaria, Poland, Russia, Mexico and Arabia.

Jeena Whang, whom we enjoyed in the 1970 Statewide Concert, performed a Fan Dance from Korea and a Court Dance of Arabia. There aren't enough adjectives to describe her costumes and her dancing.

Another solo performer was Bob Beggs, who, in addition to playing his bagpipes for the Scottish Dance on the program, played a medley of Scottish, English and American tunes.

The Mexican dances were interspersed with music and songs by Mariachi Tequilatlan, directed by Mark Fogelquist.

The beautiful costumes worn by the Jr. Dancers International were designed by Fran Stephens, and the gorgeous costumes worn by the members of Dance Arts were designed by Jerry Washburn.

Some people may wonder about the dreams, the plans, the trials and tribulations that were a part of this spectacular, but only Millie von Konsky and her assistants can realize the fulfillment of these dreams by the many talents that went into such a beautiful production as the FIRST MINI CONCERT.

DECORATING WITH PLANTS

By James Rasella

The Party Planner

For those who like to garden this activity and decorating can be beautifully combined. Live material, because of its very livingness and aroma, makes the most ideal creative material. It can be used alone, or, as I like, in heavy conjunction with paper, wood and cloth. With the exception of the conifers, which ignite easily, plants are fairly fool proof as far as a fire hazard - - - much more so than paper. Other than in the case of ornate flower arrangements using the more delicate flowers, I never use water, because it is a hazard in a room, and most plants do not need it for the length of time they are used.

My garden exists for me entirely as a source of decorating material. I do not suffer from the usual fear of cutting a twig. There is a fallacy in the belief that trees should never be cut in sections less than ten feet in length, or that an entire stem of flowers must not be cut, or that if half the plant is removed, everything within a few months will grow larger than before. I have a dozen shrubs that have been dug up at least a half dozen times in the past five years, taken to a hall for decorations and then put back in the ground. The problem with most people in using plant material from their gardens is the fear of what the plant will do if cut. Remember that cutting stimulates cell growth, and the heavier the cutting the greater the overall growth of the shrub or tree. Why take off just the camellia flower, with which almost nothing can be done, when the entire limb can be removed. Most camellia trees, as other trees in most gardens, are never pruned enough and have far too many limbs, especially internal ones, for the health of the plant.

For any Tropical, South American, Central American or Mexican themes, there are a multitude of plants that grow well anywhere, despite frosting back in the winter such as various ginger plants, banana trees, jasmines (both real and pseudo) bougainvilleas, bamboos. They are all easy to grow and can be used without water.

Recently we decorated our home for a folk dance party. Eight full size banana trees were placed at the archways, with large clumps of ginger around the bases of the trees. Ten foot clumps of bamboo flanked the corners of the room. Large urns contained bird of paradise leaves, while the top of the piano and cabinets held large arrangements of fan palm fronds and bird of paradise flowers. Star jasmine flowers were draped in the palms and bamboo. The entire interior became a rain forest. The same can be done for a hall.

Some trees that can be cut heavily in huge sections and stand up well in halls are the Shamel Ash, any of the multitude of Pittosporums, the California pepper, Podocarpus, bamboo, oak, maple, red eucalyptus, etc. Stand them erect and drape flowering vines in them, or throw flowers onto them, with appropriate manufactured decorations for the theme. Lemon branches, orange limbs, any of the flowering trees, such as quince, peach, crabapple, rosemary, are ideal for hanging from above or stuffed into basketball hoops to hang. Cattails, pussy-willows, pampas grass plumes, pod stalks of Australian flax, flowering quince, bare maple limbs with only catkins on them, cut full length, can be placed in urns, or used as background settings against which large cardboard cutouts may be placed.

For those who like to grow flowers, dahlias, calendulas, begonias, and nasturtiums are all Aztec horticultural achievements. The passion vine and naval orange come from Central America. Petunias and daisies come from England. Paris Daisies, locally known as Marguerites, and geraniums soon become a French scene. Stately poplars of France and cypress of Italy are instantaneously grown by merely wiring branches to a tall pole embedded in a can of cement, and will rise regally erect to the height of the hall and placed as a grove or as an avenue down the sides of the hall.

An easy decoration that seems spectacular is the use of water in a hall. A fountain is simple to construct. An inflatable child's wading pool serves as a base container. A small pump may be placed in the pool with a piece of small diameter tubing or hose running from the pump up through a centerpiece.

For a Mexican setting merely stack a few terra cotta pots upside down and run the tube up through the center holes. Ring the wading pool with a cardboard painted adobe wall. Stand erect a few limbs of the Shamel Ash. Drape nasturtiums over a background adobe wall, add a few pieces of pottery, a pinata or a cactus.

Change the cardboard facing to stone with figures, place manufactured cypress trees with red table cloths, place wine bottles on the tables, add a grape cutting or two, or citrus or olive branches, and it becomes an Italian setting.

Change the plant decorations to rosemary and briar roses, and the setting becomes Balkan.

In most countries of Europe flowers are used at every festival. There are no prescribed flowers for the most part - just masses of anything in bloom. However, certain trees or flowers are associated with individual countries.

If you grow an olive, a grape, a citrus or two, an almond, a pomegranate, and/or geraniums, you have the basic decorations for all of Latin Europe, the Balkans and the Near East, and for the latter, merely add a fan palm, which enhances any garden, as well as a hall.

Plant a hawthorne, a strawberry tree, an English box, heather, broom, willow, etc., and your garden becomes a source for Great Britain themes. Almost any material will go for England, as landscape gardening as we know it in the United States is an English institution rather than a continental one.

Even standard holidays can be given anew decorative twist with the addition of garden material. Halloween is a prime example. Boughs of the Rowan tree are used to keep off sea monsters, serpents, and evil forces. All early Scandinavian oared ships carried Rowan branches in their prows to protect the ships at sea from witches and supernatural figures. The Balkans hang rosemary and briarroses over doors and on barns to protect them against hob-goblins, elves and witches that would do evil and curdle cows' milk. The ash tree is one of the most powerful over the goblins.

Mistletoe was originally a tree inhabited by a powerful witch who was overcome by the spirits of other trees and reduced to a parasite. In Italy it is hung over doors to keep out witches.

In Russia one need only go out and sit under the Elder tree and sing to become howling delirious, see visions and foretell the future.

In Slavic countries sitting on an aged hollow willow stump turns one into a wizard.

In almost every country the trysting place of fairies and goblins is the Hawthorne. In the Tyrol the witch Frau Wacholder is the Juniper, while the witch Salgfraulein is the Larch tree.

There are two books of inter-erest other than Sunset's Guide To Gardening. One is a Witches Guide to Gardening by Dorothy Jacobs. The other is Trees, Forest Folklore, Mythology and Romance by Alexander Porteus. This last book describes the ethnic belief that man is descended from trees. In Scandinavia man is descended from the Oak and woman from the Ash. Countries vary as to the descent of the male, but the female is almost uniformly from the Ash. The book contains pages of charts of the biblical names for plants and the current name for the same plant. For example, the Burning Bush is now called the Red Acacia, while the Lilies of the Field have become Anemones.

In Mexico man first descended from clay and was washed away. He evolved again from trees and was consumed by fire. He finally came as red and white corn and stayed.

Even in the creation of madonna statues the Mexicans use plants. In order to make the statue light enough to carry into battle and in processions the statue is made of corn husks and leaves fastened together by a glue developed by the Tarascan Indians from orchids.

If one does not want to go all out for large floral room decorations floral decorations for the refreshment tables are simple, easy, and take only a limited amount of material and time, and are inexpensive - sometimes no cost at all. Strew flowers and fruit of pomegranate on top of grape leaves down the center of the table, set a few candles in wine bottles and your table represents half the countries of the world. If you want an Early California Spanish theme place olive branches and green teasels down the center of the table. Teasel plants were brought from Spain to the Mission at Lompoc to make carding brushes, and the plants have spread on the wind throughout the State.

If you are interested in merely creating an effect, place Agapanthus leaves down the center of your table. Between them or on them, or both add five-finger fern fronds and sprinkle heavily with pussy willow or sycamore burrs or catkins off maples. Make a row of California pepper tree boughs down the center of the table. On them place cabbage leaves. Then scatter roses or camellias on the leaves and drop star jasmine in between.

If you wish a Pacific Island theme on your table, place branches of bamboo down the center, garnish with radishes, with the leaves left on them, add yams and an ample amount of squash flowers.

Table decorations lend atmosphere to the refreshments served. With live material the work is small, the effects are legendary, and the debris will fit a garbage can. But, whatever you do with table decorations, make them large and massive. Strew the material, throw it, drop it, but don't place it in precise arrangements. Let the material fall into artistic accident. Your dancers will rave about the effectiveness.

James Rasella

Anello and Davide

A good pair of dance boots is any dancer's prized possession. Nothing can equal the feel of your boots, made to fit your feet, and it is necessary to prepare your order for them carefully and correctly to insure as near as possible a good comfortable fit from the beginning.

The following information is taken from the Anello & Davide Dance Wear Catalogue to bring the different footwear available to your attention and to aid the dancer to order his or her boots, whether they be that eagerly anticipated first pair or a pair to replace a pair of old worn friends.

The following steps are recommended in measuring for your boots:

1. Wear a pair of light weight cotton socks.

2. Use a tape measure.

While seated with foot flat on a smooth, hard floor, take the following measurements, pulling the tape taut but not tight: A) Ball of foot; B) Instep; C) Heel; D) Ankle just above ankle bone; E) Around leg at height of top of boot; F) Distance from top of boot to floor; G) Add 1/16 inch to all measurements except (F).

3. Experience has shown that both feet should be measured to find any significant differences. If over 1/16 inch difference, note it in order.

4. While seated, sketch both feet on a sheet of paper. Hold the pencil vertically and keep the point exactly under the edge of the foot. This is the place where most errors are made.

5. Enclose all measurements and drawings with the order. Be sure your return address is quite clear. Be very specific about type of footwear, color, and normal shoe size. The proper amount should be enclosed by personal check or bank draft. Have them sent air freight. Surface mail can take six months. Air freight costs about $5.50, and is well worth it. Takes about six weeks.

Mail to Anello & Davide Ltd
30-35 Drury Lane, London W.C.2
B5, RW U.K.

You will have to pay U.S. Customs when the boots arrive. I am unable to understand their rates; they vary widely, but will be around $5-$10. Then, if all has gone well, you are ready to try on your instant ecstasy. Don't be disappointed if they feel a little tight at first -- they should. But they will be old friends within a fortnight.

Care for them well. Wear them only on a dance floor; use your street shoes on the street. Air them out when you take them off. Keep them clean. Love them.

Sketches of the shoes and/or boots, including the current prices, are shown on the following page.

DRMEŠ NO. 2

(Croatia)

Drmeš (DER-mesh) #2 is one of the drmeš family of Croatian dances. It may be either a couple dance or a circle dance with no partners. It was arranged by John Filcich, based on traditional Croatian drmeš steps, and was introduced by him at the 1961 University of the Pacific Folk Dance Camp.

MUSIC: Record: Kolo Festival 4804 (45) "Drmes #2"
Kolo Festival 804 (78)

FORMATION: Cpls in shoulder-waist pos, informally spaced around the floor; or a circle dance with no ptrs, in Croatian basket hold; each with arms back of adjacent dancers, R hand joined with L hand of dancer second from own R, and L hand with dancer second from own L.

STEPS AND STYLING: Drmeš step: Hop L on upbeat (ct ah), step in place RLR (cts 1 & 2). Next drmeš step would begin with hop on R. Keep ft close to floor; dance "in your shoes."

Buzz step (2 per meas): To turn CW: Step R (full ft) across in front of L, bending knee (ct 1); step on ball of L ft just to L of R ft, straightening knee (ct &). Repeat action for cts 2, &. Use opp ftwork for a CCW turn.

Keep body erect but not stiff, except when the circle moves CW and CCW, when everyone inclines slightly twd ctr of circle.

MUSIC 2/4

PATTERN

Measures

COUPLE DANCE

- 1-8 Beginning with hop on L, dance 8 drmeš steps.
- 9-12 Take pos for CW turn: Move SLIGHTLY to own L, so that R hip is in front of ptrs R hip, M L hand on W R upper arm, his R still on W waist; W hands still on M shoulders. Turn CW with 7 buzz steps. On meas 12, ct 2, take reverse pos with L hip twd ptrs L.
- 13-16 Turn CCW with 7 buzz steps. On meas 16, ct 2, hold wt on L ft and take shoulder-waist pos to repeat dance from the beginning.

CIRCLE DANCE

- 1-8 All face ctr, in basket hold. Beginning with hop on L, dance 8 drmeš steps.
- 9-12 Circle CW with 7 buzz steps. On meas 12, ct 2, swing L ft across in front of R, turning body slightly to R.
- 13-16 Circle CCW with 7 buzz steps. On meas 16, ct 2, keep wt on L and turn slightly to face ctr to repeat entire dance.

12th Annual Polynesian Revue

Authentic Hawaiian, Tahitian, Maori, Samoan and Philippine dances, staged by Dances of the Pacific, sponsored by the Walnut Creek Recreation Department, will be given May 18, 19, 20 at the Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek, 8:30 p.m.

VEDARAS

(Lithuania)

Vedaras (VEH-dah-rah's), meaning "The Pudding", was so named by the Lithuanians because of their fondness for blood sausage and blood pudding. This dance was originally introduced by Vyts Beliajus at the 1949 Folk Dance Camp at the University of the Pacific at Stockton. Recently, using a newer recording, the dance was retaught by Vyts Beliajus at the 1971 Folk Dance Camp.

MUSIC: Record: Folkraft F LP 35 or Folkraft 78 1051 B (older recording)

FORMATION: Single circle of cpls, all facing ctr, hands joined low, arms extended downward to form a "V", W to M R. When free, M hands on hips, W hold skirts.

The Lithuanian polka is a series of independent running steps with full wt on each step.

Stamp: Throughout dance, the stamping ft does not take wt.

MUSIC 2/4

PATTERN

Measures

3 Chords INTRODUCTION - No action.

I. CIRCLE R CCW, L CW

A 1-3 All beginning with hop on L, dance 3 polka steps to R (CCW).

CHORUS: ELBOW TURNS

B 1-8 Repeat action of Chorus.

IV. POLKA GRAND R AND L

4 Stamp L twice (no wt) at same time clap L hand twice with 4th person (cts 1-2).

5-7 Beginning with L hand with 4th person, dance 3 polka steps fwd, giving L hand, R hand, L hand, and passing on to the next 4th person.

8 Stamp R twice. At same time clap R hand twice with this 4th person, who now becomes new ptr.

CHORUS: ELBOW TURNS

B 1-8 Repeat action of Chorus with new ptr.

Repeat entire dance twice (3 times in all).

SANTA ROSA ROSE FESTIVAL

The Redwood Folk Dancers and folk dance groups in the Santa Rosa area extend to each and everyone of you a "Welcome to the Rose Festival", on May 21. Folk Dancing will be from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. There will be exhibitions, squares and a good dance program.

The folk dancing will be at the Santa Rosa Junior High School, located on College Avenue -- same place as last year. Turn right on College Avenue, on Highway 101, going north.

Arrangements have been made for a picnic at Franklin Park Club House. Make up a picnic basket, bring the entire family, and enjoy an afternoon in Santa Rosa.

Circle May 21 on your Folk Dance Costume Calendar and come dance with us.

"Try it -- you'll like it!"

FRESNO FOLK DANCE COUNCIL

WILMA and SVEND ANDERSEN, and son ROBERT, will be visiting Svend's family in Denmark this summer. KAREN and NOLE McMURRAY (Karen is the daughter of the WALTER RODRIGUES') will be travelling in Europe and singing in concert as a member of a Girls' Choir (including the big Festival in Wales).

Many of the members of the Irish class competed in the Feis in San Francisco recently and the group came home loaded down with gold, silver and bronze medals.

CENTRAL VALLEY CLUB is following a new time schedule -- 7 pm to 9 pm for their Sunday night parties in the Danish Hall. They express their sympathy to HATTIE HILL, whose mother passed away recently.

Many thanks to MURRAY NORRIS for his frequent mention of folk dancing in the Fresno Guide -- a local newspaper, of which he is the editor.

Deepest sympathy is extended to HELEN HARMON in the loss of her husband, Oliver, following a short illness. Oliver and Helen had been active folk dancers for many years.

Both CENTRAL VALLEYS and the SQUARE ROUNDERS enlivened their March schedules with St. Patrick's Day potluck parties. CAL FOX's Irish stew was pronounced the best ever. The "Hobo" costumes of the Square Rounders were wondrous inventions! It was nice to see CEL-

IA DORRIS there again.

MARY PHELPS, CAROLINE PIGG and ALICE MCKNIGHT have become new members of CENTRAL VALLEY.

CLEO and WALT BALDWIN were welcome guests at SQUARE ROUNDERS recently; other out-of-towners please copy. We love having you.

VERA JONES' Mexican children have been busy dancing at such places as convalescent homes, Storyland and Rhodes Department Store.

The MONDAY-NITERS issue an invitation to join them in their last-Monday-of-the-Month party, held at Einstein Playground. The summer "season" will begin with the annual "Children's Festival" sponsored by the Fresno Recreation Department to be held in Roeding Park on Friday evening, June 2, beginning at 7:00 p.m. Following the children's numbers, a request program of dances will be presented for all folk dancers.

The successful Friday night class begun last summer will continue this year. Dances taught at this time will be those from the coming festival program. There is no charge for this class and information concerning the full schedule may be had by phoning the Fresno Recreation Department, which sponsors it.

GREATER EAST BAY FOLK DANCE COUNCIL

RAY OLSON, of the SAN LEANDRO CIRCLE-UP Club has been nominated to succeed JACK NEVES as president of the Greater East Bay Folk Dance Council. Both live in San Lorenzo. They are also members of the DANCERS INTERNATIONALE, the Friday night class taught by MILLIE von KONSKY, who was chairman of the nominating committee. ED HUSSEY, council representative of the BERKELEY FOLK DANCERS, is the nominee for vice-president. Two have been nominated for treasurer - - - ED HUBBARD of the SEMINARY SWINGERS and EARL WILSON of SAN LEANDRO CIRCLE-UP. Both are serving as their club treasurers. PHYLLIS OLSON is slated to be secretary.

New officers of the ORD INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCERS are headed by GERALD PORTER, with RAY SAKALAY, vice president, and BETTE AVERY, secretary-treasurer. DOLLY BARNES, president-elect of the FOLK DANCE FEDERATION, teaches this group from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Friday nights.

Five ORD dancers have moved from the East Bay area. GEORGE FOXHOVEN has gone to Avenal. KAY and KEN PEDEN have sold their Richmond home and headed for Sacramento in a new trailer. EDNA and AL ENDRISS sold their home in Oakland and moved to a trailer in Yountville.

HEDY DENHAM has moved to Belvedere but continues to attend the DANCERS INTERNATIONALE Friday classes. Another who will be missed from the INTERNATIONALE classes, and most of our parties, is RUTH DAKIN, who is establishing a mobile home near Eugene, Oregon. CHARLOTTE BOSSERT, the other half of a sister act prominent in East Bay Folk dancing for nearly 25 years, will continue to dance among us, she sez.

BERKELEY FOLK DANCERS will hold their annual Birthday Ball in the Empire Room of the Hotel Claremont Saturday evening, May 13. MAX HORN is in charge of arrangements. Tickets for the elegant affair are $6.50 each.

Travel-minded BERKELEY FOLK DANCERS include BILL and CLAUDE READ, recently skiing over the Brenner Pass, in the Italian Alps; LINDA and STATON JOHNSON aiming for Europe in mid-summer, CAROL and CHARLES AMIRKHANIAN to Sweden in June. We hear that WILL WHITING's destination will again be the Eastern part of Europe.

MARIN DANCE COUNCIL

After eighteen years as instructors of the WHIRL-A-WAYS of MARIN, JOE and MARIE ANGELI have retired. They plan on really enjoying their beautiful home at Lake Tahoe and just taking life easy for awhile.

The club threw a hugely successful "Thank You" party for them in March and presented them with a lifetime membership in the club, gifts and all the trimmings. Many of the old students of Joe and Marie were there, as well as WILMA YOUNG, who organized the first Federation Festival in Marin, at Sausalito, and MICKEY McGOWAN, who was a student in Wilma's class and later attended Joe and Marie's class.

The WHIRL-A-WAYS have decided to continue party nights on the Second Wednesdays of each month despite contrary rumors. ARLENE CORNO is the new instructor for the WHIRL- AWAYS and her first party nite program in March was really an "all out great party". There was something for everyone to dance.

The Marin Co-op is sponsoring a Mexican festival in May. A group of us have been asked to do an all Mexican program for the festival, and we are certainly practicing our Mexican dances.

THE JULY FESTIVAL FOR MARIN IS BACK AT THE COLLEGE OF MARIN CAMPUS AT KENTFIELD THIS YEAR. Evening dancing will be in the gymnasium and the afternoon dancing in the quadrangle with all the beautiful shade trees to sit under and Mt. Tamalpais rising in all her splendor in the background. We will celebrate a "Mexican Fiesta in July".

Recently ELIZABETH and JERRY SHIFFMAN, DAY and ROMI DREXLER, AL and JANE CRAIG, ARLENE and FRANK CORNO, CLARA KUHN, WIL- LIE BLAWERT, DICK and LOUISE KIRKENDahl, and JIM and GWEN RASELLA presented a dance program at a convalescent hospital. According to DELIA RASELLA who works there, the patients, who were in wheel chairs, were very impressed. Some of us are slowly realizing now how little we do with a beautiful dance form to bring enjoyment to those who really have very little enjoyment in life.

The Folk Art Research Center in Memory of Bernice Schram is now a reality. A memorial plaque, donated by loving friends, is permanently placed in the Novato Library. Contributions in the form of costume books, dance descriptions, embroidery and design information, and any related folk art material, will be welcomed. Contact BARBARA and FRED KARGARD or NAOMI and LESLIE ROSENBERG, or CLAIRE and SCOTT TILDEN.

The President's Ball was held at Park School in April with a large crowd attending. As usual there were plenty of door prizes, and the hall was decorated with several truckloads of beautiful flowers and even with a full size gazebo.

PENINSULA COUNCIL OF FOLK DANCE CLUBS

You are all invited to a Scottish Country Dance Party, Saturday, May 13, 8:00 p.m., at the Stern Community Center, 1305 Middlefield Road, Palo Alto. Your host will be MICH- AELA and WILL KINSEY's class. The program will consist mainly of dances which have been taught in folk dance classes in the area.

Stanford University announces an exciting Spring Dance Seminar starting in April and continuing through May. Starting May 2 CHRISTINE LE BARON will introduce Dance Cultures of the Orient. On May 16 and May 23 CHARLES WARD will teach English Country and Morris Dances.

For further information check with MIRIAM B. LIDSTER, Dept. of Physical Education for Women, Stanford, CA 94305. Jean Mooers, 3163 S. Court, P.A

SACRAMENTO COUNCIL OF FOLK DANCE CLUBS

The newly elected officers of the SACRAMENTO COUNCIL will take their responsibilities on June 1. HANK SHONERD will join the ranks of the honorable past presidents, after many thank-yous to the other officers and many committee members who have faithfully helped him in his successful year of activities. The new officers are: President, GEORGE MARKS; Vice President, MANUEL CASTANEDA; Secretary, DOROTHY VANDERSHAF; Treasurer, MILLIE LA ROSE; Director of Extension, BENNY HOOD.

The SACRAMENTO COUNCIL will be the Hospitality Committee for the Statewide Festival. We are planning to make this three day event a memorable one. HANK SHONERD has selected the following committee members to welcome you: WALT BALDWIN, MARVIN FLYR and BEA WHITTIER.

To facilitate your air journey to Sacramento during the Memorial Day weekend there is a limousine which meets all flights from 6:45 a.m. to midnight at the Sacramento Metropolitan Airport to transport you to either the Mansion Inn, the convention headquarters, or to the Hotel Senator. Service to the Mansion Inn costs $2.20 per person; to Hotel Senator, $1.50. For pick-up on departure, ask the hotel to call the LIMO service in advance to make the arrangements for you.

Newly elected GEORGE MARKS is busy with plans for the annual outing at Camp Sacramento. For the folk dancer and his family, this is an ideal weekend vacation in the mountains. There will be dance parties both Friday and Saturday nites and during the day there will be activities of hiking, swimming and games. June 30 to July 2 are the dates. Make your reservations with GEORGE and IDA PLENERT, 3988 Orval Way, Carmichael, CA, 95608, or phone 916-487-8554.

HENRY ZARET, who was such a good friend to so many of us, passed from this life March 14, 1972. We shall miss him very much.

FOR MORE ENJOYABLE DANCING

DRESS AND CLEANLINESS

The newer breed of people who join the folk dance movement are more apt to wear jeans, or some other attire, which is anything but an appropriate costume that should pay tribute to the International Folk Dance organization. The girls look very gauche in their jeans or their practically skirtless shorts. Girls cannot use their short skirts as a part of the dance styling when they have nothing to swish.

FOOT-NOTE

If people in their native countries dance in bare feet as a custom, it does not necessarily follow that it is the approved custom in other countries and places where different standards prevail.

Bare feet may start clean, but it is a matter of disrespect to the rest of the dancers when this habit permeates the multitude of steppers on the dance floor.

The protected foot, with a slipper or boot, is far less hazardous than a bare foot. In a crowded floor area one has to be especially careful not to step near a bare foot. It limits the freedom of the dance and gives priority to the one who violates the rules of good taste.
