Statewide Fiesta '75

May 23-26
SANTA MARIA

Here are the last minute instructions to make it easier for your trip to Statewide in Santa Maria:

There are five exits from the 101 Freeway into Santa Maria, and the Stowell Road turnoff will take you directly to the Vandenberg Inn. This will be where you will register on Friday only from 5:00 PM - 7:00 PM, and also where the Installation Brunch will be held on Sunday at 10:30 AM.

The Stowell Road turnoff will also take you directly to the Convention Center; cross Broadway (corner where Inn is located) continuing west to S. Thornburg St. which is the first right turn off Stowell Rd. The Convention Center is within walking distance from the Vandenberg Inn, considered four city blocks.

If you arrive after 8:00 PM on Friday, you will want to register at the Veteran's Memorial Hall where the Pre-Party will also be in session. The Main St - Guadalupe exit off the freeway will be easier, continuing due west, through the center of the city to Pine Street (there are signal lights) turn right, six blocks north, the Hall will be all lit up. This will also be the location for afterparties Saturday and Sunday 12:00 MID-3:00 AM. You will be able to get a snack there, as food will be catered by The Cooperage.

Santa Maria is looking forward to hosting Statewide!

If your registration is not in, hurry, you only have until May 10th to save $$$!*

COSTUMES FROM:

ITALY

Central Area, Vicinity
of Rome

Sketches by Eleanor Bacon

by Harriet Calsbeek, Costume Research Committee

Among the many costumes of Central Italy, two features are distinctive; they are "Le Ciocie" (chee-oh-chee-eh) which are the shoes used in this area, and "La Tovaglia" (tow-vahl-leeah) which is the headdress the women wear. These items identify the region from which the woman's costume originates.

The Tovaglia is the type of headdress made from a rectangular piece of cloth, traditionally linen, starched and folded to make a little box effect. This sits on the head while the ends fall on the shoulders and back, giving good protection from the heat of the sun. It is kept in place by long pins, silver for the young girls and gold "tremolanti" - dangling ornaments - for the brides and matrons.

The blouse is made of heavy, white linen or cotton, with no collar, and often adorned with lace at the neck or wrists. The wide sleeves are gathered at the top and below the elbow, and may have inserts of lace or colored embroidery two or more inches wide, just above and below the elbow. A broad cuff of red velvet may be added below the sleeve. For ease in laundering, it is suggested that the lower edge of the sleeve be gathered with a drawstring or ribbon, pinned or tied, that can be removed easily.

Green velvet is generally used for the bodice, although another soft fabric may be used, and is stiffened with a firm interfacing. The bodice may be edged in a bright color or with gold trimming. See back view and the way the lacings are tied. The color of the lacings may vary, but black is used for both the bodice and cuffs when in mourning.

A large scarf is draped over the shoulders and knotted so the knot meets the top of the bodice at the center front. The fabric is of a soft material with a floral print, and has a fringe of a soft red yarn.

The skirt is 3 1/2 to 4 yards around, cut straight, never flared, and gathered or pleated. The fabric is of a heavy texture; like wool, damask, etc. In the North, colors are dark: blue, dark green, brown, purple, and black, while in the South the bright reds, maroons, and greens are typical. The skirt length is to the ankle or a few inches above it. Over the skirt a very decorative apron is worn, and the lighter colors appear here. It can be of delicate white or black home made lace, or of a linen, silk, velvet, homespun wool, or even leather. Sometimes it matches the headpiece.

"The apron is like a painting, it requires much thought and work and trimming. Some of the designs used may have symbolic meanings; a bird carrying a branch may mean love and fertility; two hearts, faithfulness, etc."* This is the place for imagination. It is large, covering the whole front of the skirt except for a few inches at the bottom. A bright print or embroidery would produce the effect desired.

The woman's stockings are heavy white knitted cotton with lacy designs. The shoes, "Ciocie", are of black leather. They are made of a plain piece of leather cut a little wider than the foot all around. The edges are perforated with small holes through which ribbons or strings are drawn and then laced up around the ankle and leg. These shoes have a very ancient history; in fact they go back to the footwear used by the primitive people of the Italian peninsula and of other countries. "The women of this area for centuries have been called 'Ciociare' about whom many poems have been written..."*

Coral necklaces and earrings complete her costume.

The men wear a very stylish tall stiff hat made of a dark felt, and a small colored cotton kerchief tied loosely around his neck. His shirt is homespun, or a white linen, with a soft collar and narrow cuffs. Around his waist he has a solid color or lengthwise striped sash with a small fringe on the narrow ends. The sash is tied to the side.

The trousers are of a heavy wool material, or heavy cotton, of dark colors. Knee length is traditional, though the long length is now used as well. Brass buttons or ties are used at the knee opening. The front is either plain or may have a sailor-type flap, also buttoned.

The stockings are white, or black, and are hand knitted. The shoes are the "Ciocie" or other black leather shoes, low cut, and may have buckles.

Your Letters...

Shalom to you!

In June of 1973 a "tradition" was born. The Israeli Folk Dance Institute became a reality. This year will mark our 3rd annual, but many dancers throughout California still know little about us. Perhaps it is time to introduce ourselves.

The Institute is sponsored by Israeli dance teachers in both the Bay Area and the Los Angeles region. It is held annually at the beautiful campus of the California State Polytechnic Institute at San Luis Obispo. Only a four hour drive North or South, the scenery alone makes the trip worthwhile!

The purposes of the Institute are simple ones. We feature dances direct from Israel, via our guest instructors. This kind of exposure helps us keep in touch with what's really happening to the dance in Israel. We are dealing with "genuine" folk material, so to speak. And each teacher presents his or her own dances with a current awareness of events in that country. We also feature sessions for beginners, time for singing and music, and history of the Israeli dance as presented by our guest. It is also a time to dance with new people, to see what other dancers are up to, what material is favored North or South. It's a great way to keep in touch.

Our first Institute featured STAN ISAACS, who had just returned to America with loads of exciting material. Last year, MOSHIKO was our honored guest, and his beautiful dances and outgoing personality left us all with fond memories. (For a good summary of last year's program, see the letter in the February issue!) This year's guest instructor is to be announced.

We are eagerly anticipating our third festival. If you would like to join us in the sheer joy of the dance, please save the weekend of June 20-22. It's an experience not soon forgotten!

Dear Editor,

I am very impressed with, and enjoyed very much reading Vi Dexheimer's article entitled: "Folk Dancing in California" which appeared in the March 1975 issue of "LET'S DANCE" magazine. It is a very interesting narrative! - informative, concise, and complete- tracing the history of the folk dance movement in California from its inception to the present time.

I think every folk dancer in California - old-timer or new - should read this article (if they haven't yet) as I believe every folk dancer should know something about the background of the folk dance movement (in California).

As a matter of fact, anyone who does not have access to perusing this article may wish to contact me for a duplicate copy. 522 Hyde St.; Suite #12, San Francisco, CA 94109. Phone: 441-4958.

From an interested and enthusiastic ballroom, folk, and square dancer!

Dear Editor,

Modest success is reported from the East Bay Council in their presentation on Saturday, March 29, of a DANCERS' INSTITUTE.

About forty dancers in all attended, with MILLIE VON KONSKY presenting Hofbrauhaus Laendler and Waltz Violetta Mazurka, while GRACE NICHOLS presented Neapolitan Tarantella and a good review of La Cachucha with instructions on playing the castanets.

Attendance was a cross section of dancers; beginners with less than a year's experience all the way up to advanced dancers with many years of experience wanting to brush up on the dances being presented.

It is hoped that this process of reviewing and reteaching of the older dances will be continued with emphasis on reviving and revitalizing the best of those dances many of us have learned and perhaps forgotten.

The institute lasted for four hours with most participants returning in the evening to attend the 5th Saturday Party where well over 120 dancers joined in one of the best East Bay Council parties we have seen in a long time!

Keep up the good work, East Bay Council, and perhaps some of the other teachers, clubs, and councils should try a little of the same!

Max Horn

Editor's Note,

Early reports indicate that the BEGINNER'S FESTIVAL, which was held at Bancroft Jr. High School in San Leandro on Sunday, April 6, was a roaring success. There were approximately 250 in attendance. More on this as we receive more information.

KOZIORAJKA

(Poland)

Koziorajka (koh-zoh-RAHY-kah) is a dance for three from the mountainous region of Beskid in the southern part of Upper Silesia in Poland. The name is derived from the word "koza", the goat. This dance has three melodies with three different tempos, characteristic of Silesian music. Ada and Jas Dziewanowski learned the dance in Cieszyn, Poland, from Janina Marcinkowa, a noted Silesian Folklorist. It was introduced by Ada Dziewanowski at the 1974 University of Pacific Folk Dance Camp.

MUSIC: Record: DR 7167 Side B, Band 1 (no introduction) 2/4 meter.

FORMATION: Circles of trios, M between 2 W, all hands joined with arms extended to form a circle

El Naranjo (nah-RAHN-hoh), meaning "the orange tree", is a lively dance from northern Mexico. It was introduced at the 1974 Folk Dance Camp in Stockton, California by Nelda Drury.

STOCKTON FOLK DANCE CAMP

JULY 27 THROUGH AUGUST 2 and
AUGUST 3 THROUGH AUGUST 9, 1975

The 1975 Folk Dance Camp at the University of the Pacific is just about to open its doors to another wonderful summer of dancing. The two one-sessions will be from July 27 through August 2 and August 3 through August 9, 1975.

The outstanding staff this year will include: Dick Crum, Andor Czompo, Nelda Drury, Ada Dziejowska, Germain Hebert, Jerry Helt, Bora Gajicki, Atanas Kolarovski, Ned and Marian Gault, Miriam Lidster, and still one more line dance teacher to be confirmed.

The daily schedule includes six hours of class, an assembly, song participation, dancing on the lawn, a dance review session and an after party at the "Coffee House." Special arrangements are made each week for crafts and castanets. Each Wednesday is a review session for all of the material introduced the previous days, followed by culture corners with all of the international experts. On Wednesday afternoon everyone travels to nearby Micke Grove Park for an afternoon and evening of fun, food and dancing. Saturday is the second session for the dances introduced on Thursday and Friday. The week comes to a climax with the Camp Talent Show, and then the fantastic international banquet. Our UOP chefs prepare a meal fit for Kings. The banquet is followed by an evening of dancing. The party themes for this year will be Polish for the first week and Balkan for the second week.

The "Coffee House" has been one of the most pleasant additions to Camp. A relaxed atmosphere allows each dancer to finish the day (night) with the final touch. Your hosts, John and Paula Pappas, have taken great care to have a variety of international foods available. When the mood moves you, a request program is available right in the next room. Each dance party is hosted by a different staff member. Live music is often part of the evening.

The real "feeling" of Stockton is hard to describe. For one whole week the cares of the outside world seem to disappear. You become so immersed in the total activity of dance that a oneness arises above racial, cultural and religious differences.

We hope you will be able to join us for our 28th year. A $25. deposit, forwarded to Mr. Jack McKay, Director, Stockton Folk Dance Camp, University of the Pacific, Stockton, California, 95211, will hold your place. The total cost for one week, including board and room, is $155.00. You may also write for further information to the above address.

"OH, WHAT TALENTED PEOPLE THESE KOPACHKAS BE!"

On a recent Friday evening, LEON and SELMA PINSKER opened their home for a musicale, recital, and high-powered talent show. There the Kopachka Dancers and their families and friends found out just how talented some of their members are.

It started out with the MAUTNER sisters, EVA & DARIA, playing a sonata for piano and recorder. Then Julliard cellist and daughter of Leon & Selma, ANNE PINSKER, played a piece by Saint Saens. KAREN NELSON, who accompanied Anne, also played a piano solo by Copland, then joined forces with KEVIN LINSKOTT, DEAN & NANCY'S oldest son, to perform the Hindemith Sonata for trombone and piano. CATHERINE BARDELL, NANCY JONES, & WENDY ZUKAS blended voices to present several Russian and Croation folk songs. BILL LANDSTRA, well-known folkdancer and square dance caller, demonstrated another one of his talents, fiddling an old Irish Waltz and then his interpretation of the Greek Karagouna. He was backed up on guitar by KEN EMBREY, that very versatile Kopachka musician who plays almost every instrument he picks up, from jew's harp and penny whistle to violin, bass, kavak, and tupan.

After everyone had participated an hour or so in folkdancing and light refreshments, we were entertained with two Flamenco duets by HONORA CLARK and BOB FORSCUTT. Then to top off the evening we had a belly dance by APRIL WAKEMAN. Most everyone stayed and danced and visited for a few more hours. Among the special guests present were BERNIE & SELMA COOPERMAN from Long Beach and DOUG & DONNA TRIPP from Anaheim, canoeing and Mendocino friends of several of the Kopachkas. Donna teaches in the Long Beach area and dances with the GANDYS and BETYROK. Selma PINSKER teaches the lively, ever-growing Beginner-Intermediate class at the Mill Valley Recreation Center on Monday nights.

For those of you who enjoy Norwegian dances, the Kopachkas will be dancing for the Norwegian Independence Day celebration in Golden Gate Park, Sunday, May 18th at 2 PM.

ORANGE COUNTY FOLKDANCERS

THOUGHTS ON LAGUNA FESTIVAL '75 -- No need to say too much about this outstanding festival because, from the looks of the dance floor, EVERYBODY was there to enjoy it first-hand! It was a bit like Disneyland in August, but what else can you expect when two teachers like Dick (Crum) and Sunni (Bloland) get together in a place like Laguna Beach? Outstanding combination! Also, if this was your first visit to TOP OF THE WORLD ELEMENTARY SCHOOL, you will agree that there is not a school anywhere more deserving of the title!

ORANGE COUNTY FOLKDANCERS are planning to have a new beginners' class. If you are interested in such a class, please see BERTHA GOLD for more information.

ORANGE COUNTY & LAGUNA FOLKDANCERS co-sponsored a fantastic evening - an Israeli Master Class with MOSHIKO HALEVY. Moshiko has been appearing in various areas of the Southland -- among which was a very interesting and stimulating institute sponsored by the Folk Dance Federation of California, South, at Los Feliz Jewish Community Center.

ORANGE COUNTY FOLKDANCERS meet Friday evenings from 8:30 to 11:30 PM at Santa Ana College Dance Studio, Bristol & 17th St., Santa Ana.

WESTWOOD CO-OPERATIVE FOLKDANCERS

We only had three teaching nights in March because the school was dark for one evening (energy conservation), but we had some very interesting dances taught -- Silistrenski Opas, a Serbian Line dance taught by IAIN NICOLSON and Rucenica for Three, a Bulgarian trio taught by MEL GOLDITCH, SUSAN PRICE and FRAN SLATER.

Our FOLKLORE SING GROUP was treated to a LAGNIAPPE at the very first meeting. BORA OZKOK was our guest teacher for the evening, and he very graciously spent the folklore half-hour regaling us with tales of his experiences & the folklore of his homeland, Turkey. At the following meetings BEMI deBUS and EILEEN led the singing of melodies familiar in our dancing experience. So come to the small gym room at 7 PM each Thursday and join in even if you only hummmm you are welcommmm-mme.

ANOTHER very successful weekend at CAMP HESS KRAMER. Even though it did rain Friday evening, it did not dampen our spirits. We had 103 happy people who danced, sang, ate, drank, made ceramic beads and other goodies with BOB & CAROLINE BRENT, and made suspenders for ladies' skirts and mens trouders with ROSALIE UDELFF. BEMI deBUS had a very attentive audience for her demonstration on Bonzai trees and water plants --- if you go away for a weekend you don't have to worry about your plants drying out! We danced to music taped by ED FELDMAN and learned some new dances from BEVERLY BARR. Had some great skits put on by the various dancers during the evening program -- these were people who sat together at luncheon Saturday and worked their skits out in the afternoon. RENA NADLER had us in stitches with her games -- until the wee hours. ESTHER GURA, et al, had us in good spirits with the cocktail hour before Saturday dinner. All this good stuff was under the watchful eye of CLAIRE COHEN and her ever-loving husband DAVE.

BILL CAMPBELL, one of the persons on the Archives Committee of the Folk Dance Federation of California, South (ELSIE DUNIN, Chairman), has installed several pictures in our club's History Book of lovers of Westwood who met and married here.

Many of us attended the lovely wedding of LINDA SLATER and PAUL HANSEN in the garden of her parents' (FRAN and DAVE SLATER) home. The radiant couple wore matching shirts, embroidered Hungarian style by Fran. The happy couple went to Hawaii on their honeymoon. They will make their home in Santa Rosa. Much luck and happiness to the young couple!

AMONG OUR FRIENDS IN THE SAN DIEGO AREA

GLOBETROTTERS --- AUDREE and WALT REYNOLDS, whom we usually send off to Boston, skipped off up to Oceanside to visit Audree's aunt. JACK VANDOVER left with his ship, the "DOWNERS" for six weeks at sea. Make it a short six weeks, Jack! GERRY DAY and WICK HAUSER went to Los Angeles to attend a Greek Festival and to see the Hungarian Folk Ballet at U.C.L.A.

The troop of BROWNIES and GIRL SCOUTS who appeared at the Sunday dancing are from El Cajon and are working for their "dance" badge --- there's future dance material for us right there. Help! We need Boy Scouts, too!

VIVIAN WOLL developed "walking pneumonia" and missed our Feb 8th party. It was a ball --- with PAT COE in charge, and the "goodies" booth made very popular by anti - inflation prices. The "kissin" booth, staffed by DANA BAXLEY and MARSHA ALLMAN, did a high-jacking and-railroading business!!! The SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCERS performed with finesse at mid-evening and added color to the party with their costumes. VIVIAN, glad you are now OK and back with us.

IVY & GEORGE PANTER are down again for their annual visit to the Southland from Canada.

THANK YOU, ARCHIE STIRLING, for the 25 beautiful, new, easy-to-read dance cards. What a refreshing sight they are!

ROYAL SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCE SOCIETY, Los Angeles Branch

BY THE TIME you have read this, the Society will have had another successful Institute weekend at Santa Maria; with MARY BRANDON, STEWART SMITH, and BILL IRELAND.

ROBERT BURNS would have been proud of the way we kicked off his 216th year. It was all there, the skirl of the pipes and swirl of the kilt, the bonnie lasses he always loved so dearly, and a few drappies o' the guid stuff. And when TOMMY PEEL delivered the "Adress to the Haggis", it was easy enough for us to be transported back to a dimly lit Scots tavern, candles smokily guttering, when the light came on again and there, right in front of us, was haggis that richly deserved the tribute. CHRIS FULTON and MARVIN REED'S masterpiece added to the festivities. The THISTLE BAND has never played better. If only they could play and come down and dance with us at the same time, then they could see how much they contribute to the evening. See you all next year!

THE GRANDE DAME OF THE SOCIETY, MISS JEAN MILLIGAN, is scheduled to touch down in Los Angeles Saturday, the 3rd of May and as many members as can manage are asked to be on hand to do honor to this wonderful lady. It is fitting that she should be arriving just as our tenth anniversary celebrations are - hopefully - getting under way. Camera buffs are needed to be on hand to record this notable arrival. Let's show Miss Milligan just why we are America's largest as well as most progressive branch.

GREATER EAST BAY FOLK DANCE COUNCIL

THE PANTALOONERS FOLK DANCE CLUB will celebrate its 28th birthday on Wednesday, June 11th with dancing and a Hawaiian theme. Dinner is at 6:30 PM at the Laurel School, 3820 Kansas St., Oakland. For reservations, phone Allene at 530-0810. This annual reunion party is a fine time to see old friends.

RICHMOND-SAN PABLO FOLK DANCERS are going to review Rio Rimba. If you would like to review or learn this still popular dance, you are welcome.

BILL WENZEL, President of the BERKELEY FOLK DANCERS, made an eloquent appeal to the Recreation, Parks, and Community Services Department for funds to be dispersed under measure Y. Says Bill, "Our membership exceeds 250, and our program, which runs 5 nights a week, has a monthly membership attendance of about 1,000. We are the largest but by no means the only users of JOHN HINKEL CLUBHOUSE....We take this opportunity to convey to the Commission our belief that care of existing facilities, though not as exciting as the acquisition of new ones, is just as important to the community and usually a lot less expensive."

PHYLLIS OLSON, President of the GEBFDC, reports that 36 attended the Council Institute. Everyone had nothing but praise for the afternoon of teaching, requesting that the Council "do it again". That evening 130 attended the Fifth Saturday Party. A tentative date of Jan. 31, 1976 has been set for the next Institute.

REDWOOD FOLK DANCE COUNCIL

WOMEN'S NAPA VALLEY FOLKDANCE GROUP have had a very busy schedule of rehearsals and exhibitions -- Camellia Festival, Millie von Kinsky's club's twenty-sixth anniversary party, Apple Blossom Festival; and dates are calendared through the summer and fall. JUNE SCHAAL is certainly to be commended for her fine instruction and leadership.

Many of our dancers have been ill and unable to be with us. We are happy that PAULINE SPRAGUE and MAXINE and LEO MILLER have returned after long and persistent bouts with "the flu". HENRIETTA USAUROU is progressing successfully following cataract surgery, but will not be dancing for a few weeks; we know we'll see her the minute her doctor permits the activity -- can you imagine Henriette's not being able to dance? Hospitalized also were LYDIA FORSYTHE of NAPA FOLKDANCERS and SUNNYSIDE FOLKDANCERS, and we look forward to their return to dancing with us. The folkdance family never gets so large that absent members are not missed -- THAT'S FOLKDANCING!

The teachers in the REDWOOD COUNCIL area have had another meeting. They feel that coordination of dances taught has benefited party programs and dancing and that their discussions have been very worthwhile.

After a recent party an enthusiastic dancer who had co-hosted the party was overheard to say, "Wasn't it a fun party? Really, the more we put into parties, the more we enjoy them!" This should inspire those who do not share in the party production to do so -- to share the MORE FUN.

PENINSULA FOLK DANCE COUNCIL

The future of folk dancing on the Peninsula seems assured, thanks to young-marrieds in our club. What more delightful time than a glorious, sunny Easter Sunday to write the news! Recent parents are CAROL and WELDON WONG, of DOCEY DOE; ELIZABETH and RON BUENO of the PALOMANIANS; and MARGY (Council Treasurer) and BEN ARMENTROUT of the PALOMANIANS. Also, soon to add new family members are LINDA and BRAD MARTIN of DOCEY DOE; and CINDY and ERIC MEIGS of the REDWOOD CITY FOLK DANCERS. Having observed Margy enthusiastically dancing so recently, I am sure little AMY ARMENTROUT already has her own favorite dances!

When you read these lines, FLORENCE and JULES DI CICCO will have returned rested and relaxed from a cruise on the Mediterranean, including Lisbon, Cadiz, Seville, Tangier, Gibraltar, Palma, Mallorca, Tunis, Malta, Sicily and Yugoslavia. I dropped in on these folks in Watsonville the other day and it's no wonder they need to get away once in awhile. Whatever else is happening to us and our economy, roses are in.

THE PALOMANIANS of Menlo Park hosted a fast-moving, fun evening for the Peninsula Council on the 5th Saturday in March and now we are looking forward to the 5th Saturday in May, when ENSEMBLE INTERNATIONAL will present a Swiss Fondue Party at the Sunnyvale Recreation Center on Remington Ave. (Hwy 85 or Fair Oaks exit south from 101 or Saratoga-Sunnyvale exit north from 280.). Hope to see you there May 31st.

As agreed at the teachers' meeting on September 1, most of the dances to be taught or reviewed are now being included regularly in our programs. These dances are: Ada's Kujawiak No.1, Changier Quadrille, Hora Fetelor, Janet's Delight, Jota Criolla, Kolubarski Vez, Kreuz Koenig, Le Gratteur de Cordes, Sshlam Ya'akor, and Walpole Cottage. Of course, each club has its own favorites and this is what makes visiting fun --- but it's also fun to work together, and the success of this kind of cooperation is evident as time goes on.

SACRAMENTO FOLK DANCE COUNCIL

MRS BEE WHITTIER, President of the Sacramento Council, 1959-60, and HAROLD, celebrated that rare event; a fiftieth wedding anniversary; by inviting friends to a dinner dance April 26th at the Tuesday Club. Congratulations and best wishes for many more happy years together were warmly expressed to these remarkably active folk dancers.

PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL CLARENCE PERRY patted his many committees on the back for a CAMELLIA FESTIVAL well done. Many spectators expressed enthusiasm for the outstanding decorations and exhibition dancing. Because there was so much interest in the cross-stitch design decorations, I asked DENISE MITCHELL of the CAMTIA CLUB to tell how it was done---

"To create these designs we used books on Yugoslavian embroidery. The design was palced in an opaque projector and projected onto a large sheet of butcher paper taped to the wall. This must be done in a darkened room. We had only light from the projector. You can imagine how one's neck, arms, and eyes ache after only a few minutes of this! However, we were lucky enough to have dedicated groups working in shifts. After the design was copied, another group color-coded it and sent it on to the painting crew. Tempera paints were used to bring the design to life. Believe me, painting was the easiest part of this project."
