President's Message

I've been folk dancing on a regular basis for the past 12 years. For the first time this summer I attended the Stockton Folk Dance Camp, and as a result I have a new appreciation for the truly trans-global activity that international folk dancing now is.

It has always been a real joy for me to learn dances from all over the world. Hearing the sounds of music and song produced by people half the globe away from my home has been just one of the many enriching aspects of my folk dance experience. Yet while I have been well aware of the fact that dances from many places and cultures were being taught here in California as well as elsewhere in the United States, I don't think that I ever really thought about the fact that there would be other people all around the world also learning the same dances and getting the same pleasure from that accomplishment.

Perhaps the most wonderful thing about international folk dance is that the elements of music and movement are truly universal in appeal. This realization was particularly brought home to me during that week at Stockton as I danced together with other dancers from Brazil, England, Finland, Lebanon, Turkey, Israel and Japan.

There are relatively few things which allow us to see that we as travellers on spaceship Earth have much in common with our fellow passengers who happen to live in other nations. Folk dancing happens to be one of them. My thanks go out to Camp Director Bruce Mitchell and all those involved in presenting the Stockton Folk Dance Camp for my week at camp and the new insight I gained there.

Welcome to the Harvest Festival

We wish to welcome you to Fresno's "Autumn Harvest Folk Dance Festival" to be held on October 16 and 17, 1999—our 51st. For your dancing pleasure this will be held on the real wood floor of California State University, Fresno South Gym, Campus Drive and San Bruno Avenue, Fresno. Refresh yourself with food and drinks available at a nominal cost. Arrangements for parking on campus are being made for this weekend. Two motels are within walking distance.

For those of you arriving early on Friday, Drew Herzig of Sacramento will be teaching at the Lafayette Social Hall, Princeton and Glenn, Fresno, from 8 to 10 p.m., free admission.

For enhancing your dance knowledge, an Institute of Folk Dances will be taught Saturday starting at 1:30 PM. The following dances, fresh from this year's Stockton Folk Dance Camp, will be taught: Jiana - Romania; Sa - Serbian Cocek, and Brestaska Rucenica - Bulgaria. Also featured are English Country Dances: The Female Saylor, Dublin Bay and Scotch Cap. Jeanne Faulkner will be teaching the Balkan dances, and Joyce Ugglu will be teaching the English Country dances. A $5 donation includes a dance syllabus for you to write your additional notes and insights in.

Admission is free to all other festival events. At 7 p.m., dancing begins with a "by your request" KOLO HOUR with host Drew Herzig, playing your favorite folk dances. For your enjoyment, beautifully costumed exhibitions will be at 8 p.m. Dancing resumes with the festival folk dance program. Finish dancing with an all request after party starting around 11 p.m.

At 1:30 p.m. Sunday, dancing resumes with the festival folk dance program until 5 p.m. For your enjoyment, beautiful costumed exhibitions will be shown at 2:30 p.m.

The festival will conclude with an afterparty at the Ramada Inn, one and a half miles west on Shaw at Fresno Street, where we'll meet at 6 p.m. for dinner. You will be able to order from the restaurant menu ranging from steak to vegetarian. Following immediately will be your folk dance requests played by host, Kent Petersen. Hope to see you here.

Ankeliini (Finland)

Ankeliini (AHN-keh-lee-nee) is a 19th century couple dance from south Finland. It was taught by Jussi Aronen and Lennu Yläneva at the 1999 Stockton Folk Dance Camp held at the University of the Pacific.

CD: 1999 Tanhukurssi Band 8. 2/4 meter
This recording has music for a five-cpl longway set.

Formation: Five couples in a longways set: Dancers in 2 parallel lines with ptrs facing. M have L shldr twd head of hall. Hands are at sides.

Steps and Walk: One step to a ct, 2 steps to a meas.
Styling:

Butterfly Position: Face ptr and join hands straight across, palm to palm. Stretch arms out to sides about shldr level, with elbows slightly bent.

Slide-Close (2 to a meas): Usually danced sideward. Slide ball of advancing ft sdwd, taking wt (ct 1); close with the trailing ft (ct &); repeat cts 1,& (cts 2,&). Step repeats exactly. This is the only step in the dance where the starting ft is crucial. It should be sdwd in the direction you wish to travel (opp ft from your ptr). When moving to L start with L ft; moving to R, start with R ft.

Head Couple: Cpl at the end of set nearest the head of the hall.
Foot Couple: Cpl at the opposite end of the set

Measures	2/4 meter	PATTERN
2 meas	INTRODUCTION	No action except on meas 2, Head Cpl and Foot Cpl step twd ptr and take Butterfly Pos.
	I. SLIDE-CLOSE STEPS
1-4		In Butterfly Pos, Head and Foot Cpls dance 8 Slide-Close steps to opp end of the set. Head Cpl slide down; Foot Cpl slide up. Pass to the L with Head M and Foot W passing back-to-back. On last closing step (meas 4, ct &) take no wt.
5-8		Still in Butterfly Pos, Head and Foot Cpls return to place with 8 more Slide-Close steps. Head M and Foot W still pass back-to-back. (same old track). On last closing step take no wt.
9-16		Repeat meas 1-8. At end of meas 16, each active cpl open up to stand side-by-side with ptr, facing the other active cpl. Head Cpl will face Foot of Set; Foot Cpl will face Head of Set. Inside hands are joined in W-pos and outside hands are at sides.

II. PROCESSION

- 1-4 Head Cpl walk 8 steps down the middle of the set to end in front of and facing the Foot Cpl. On 8th step acknowledge the other cpl.
- 5-7 Head Cpl turn 1/2 around (turn twd ptr) and, followed by Foot Cpl, walk 6 steps twd Head of Set.
- 8 All at the same time-
Dancers in the lines: move sdwd (M R, W L) twd Foot of Set with 2 steps. New Foot Cpl be on the alert to start the repeat of the dance again.
