

It should be of interest to readers of "Let's Dance" that the publication they subscribe to got its start with a 2-page mimeograph copy, Volume 1 No. 1, in January of 1944. It took place during the Presidency of Ed Kremers that he and then Secretary-Treasurer of the Federation, Clarice (Dechent) Wills, prepared the aforementioned 2 page magazine which they titled, Federation Folk Dancer. They ran off enough copies for each of the Federation clubs and a few extras which were offered for sale at .05 each.

In February, 1944, newly appointed Editor, Bret von Kriedt issued Volume 1, No 2, a second two page mimeographed Federation Folk Dancer, continuing an unbroken sequence to the present day. The name, Federation Folk Dancer was changed in October to "Let's Dance". The Hermans in New York were publishing a paper, The Folk Dancer, prompting this change.
