*"My beloved is mine, and I am his,
He feedeth among the lilies"*—SONG OF SONGS II—16

Yemenite tango for couples, composed by Rivka Sterman in 1949. Melody by Nira Chen. Although recently composed, it uses basic Yemenite dance patterns and the melody is typical of Yemenite songs. The dance was presented by Dvora Lapson at Stockton in 1952. The description is reprinted by permission of Dvora Lapson and the Jewish Education Committee of New York, copyright 1952.

MUSIC: Record Arzi 770.

FORMATION: Couples in circle, partners facing; M on inside, W outside. M R hand holding W L. Outside hands hang freely at side and move with body.

STEPS: *Walking, *Change step, *Grapevine, Cherkessia, Yemenite three step.

STYLE: The steps are small with no exaggerated kicks on the cross steps or deep dips. The knees are relaxed, the body erect. Partners should face each other, except in the "Wall step" and while moving backward in Fig. II. Even on the cross steps the hips swing with the foot but the shoulders should face partner.

*Described in Folk Dances from Near and Far.
