

Tai-Wan Hau (Taiwan)

Tai-wan Hau (TIGH WAHN HOW) means "Beautiful Taiwan". This is a dance of one of the aboriginal tribes native to Taiwan and was introduced in Taiwan by Miss Tien Ch'un Tze, an A-Mei maiden, in 1979. The lyrics describe the beautiful Taiwan landscape and contentment with life; the movements are full of spirit and happiness. The dance was presented at the 1980 University of the Pacific Folk Dance Camp by Ching-Shan Chang.

RECORD: C.C.S. - 1980 (33) Side A/7 4/4 meter

FORMATION: Mixed circle, hands joined in "V" position, facing center.

STYLING: M dance with strong, decisive movements. W dance with softer, more fluid movements. When hands are free they are loosely fisted. Knees and elbows are always slightly bent.
