Meeting called to order by President Carlos Ruling at 11:45 AM.

Joel Bruxvoort, President of the SF Council, welcomed members and guests. He also said a lunch would be served after the meeting. Cost would be $5.00 including festival charge.

REPORTS:

Sergeant of Arms, Elsa Bacher, reported a quorum present.

MINUTES:

Minutes of 3/10/96 meeting in Sacramento approved as mailed.

PRESIDENT:

Carlos reported he had contacted the mayor's office asking for a welcome and proclamation for Statewide.

VICE PRESIDENT:

Barbara reported she had made up new flyers for Statewide to be distributed.

SECRETARY:

Genevieve as pre-registration gave a short Statewide report:
50 dancers had registered to date. Special events were:

There will be a North/South meeting at Statewide on Sunday from 9:30 - 10:30 at the Miyako Inn,

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Mel Mann needed a list of "Where to Dance" for a group and felt the Federation should have one available from all areas. These are available at the office and are used for telephone queries. However he felt they should be available in quantity so they could be distributed when necessary. The President and Vice President will work on this project.

Under publicizing folk dancing Stela reported that her group would be performing with castanets at the Yerba Buena Arts Center on June 6th at 2 and at 7 PM.

NEW BUSINESS:

Motion was made by Frank Bacher, seconded by Elsa Bacher and approved to send Let's Dance Magazine to all Past Presidents free of charge.

Next assembly meeting will be the Valley of the Moon Folk Dance Festival, Fiesta de Sonoma on Sept. 8, 1996.

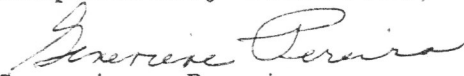

Next executive board meeting will be on June 2, 1996 at the home of Gen Pereira, 1811 Cornell Drive, Alameda. Purpose is to approve appointments of standing and rotating committees, receive officers and committee reports and discuss financial and tax reports.

Various announcements were made.

ADJOURNMENT:

It was moved, seconded and passed to adjourn the meeting at 12:40 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Genevieve Pereira
Secretary
