

The Moveable Feet invites you to a Contra & Square dance afternoon workshop, potluck dinner & international folk dance evening party with

Tony Parkes

Music by Susan Worland during the Contra Workshop

Saturday, July 20, 2019

All Saints' Episcopal Church, 555 Waverley St., Palo Alto

One donation: $16 Come for the entire event or portions as you wish.
We look forward to dancing with you.

Hailing from the Boston area, Tony Parkes has been calling square and contra dances for more than 50 years. He believes in keeping these dance forms accessible to as many people as possible. He has beginners doing real dances within seconds, and can keep experienced dancers entertained with a bit of challenge or elegance.

3:00 pm: Doors open

3:15 - 5:30 pm Contra and Square Dance Workshop:

Contras: 3:15 - 4:30

Break

Squares: 4:45 - 5:30

5:30 - 6:30 pm: Potluck Dinner

6:30 - 9 pm: Folk Dance Party. Tony plans to call a few contras and squares dances.

Dancing to recorded music from all countries. Requests in advance appreciated.

No partners needed. We change partners after each dance. All dancers welcome, however, basic knowledge of the fundamentals of contra and square dancing is beneficial. For the potluck dinner, kindly bring dishes to serve 8-10 dancers. No oven, yes refrigerator, yes, crockpots.

Contact: Lucy at LucySChang@gmail.com or

Lesley at bonelesley@hotmail.com