Statewide Concert 1972 World Dance Cavalcade

Eyes of all folk dancers throughout California are turned toward the city of Sacramento in anticipation of the 1972 Statewide Concert, which will be presented by the Folk Dance Federation of California in the Sacramento Municipal Auditorium, Saturday evening, May 27, at 8:00 o'clock.

Along with a spectacular display of Statewide talent, the 1972 Concert will give all who attend an opportunity to further their appreciation of America's cultural heritage.

The following facts are my reason for stating that the Concert this year, with the theme of "World Dance Cavalcade", will be hard to top:

A majority of the numbers will be "first-seen" exhibitions. There will be statewide participation, including six groups from Southern California: Polski Iskrie, Cygany Dancers, Scottish Dance Ensemble, Dahar Dancers, Cabrillo Folk Dancers, Gandy Dancers, and fifteen groups from Northern California, Ensemble International, Lopachka Dancers, Camtia Dance Ensemble, Khadra Ethnic Group, Pittsburg Filipiniana, Terpsichoreans of San Francisco, Westwind International Dance Ensemble, Los Lunenos, Dancers of the Pacific, Russian Folkdance Group, Dance Arts of Oakland, Changs International Folk Dancers, Choral Dance Group and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Buffin.

A variety of culture will be represented: Hungarian, Polynesian, Scottish, French, Caucasian, Philippine, Norwegian, Spanish, Mexican, Transylvanian, Yugoslavian, Bulgarian, Israeli, Polish, Russian, Czechoslovakian, Roumanian and American.

As to concert personnel, the script will be narrated by Nate Moore, of Southern California. The music coordination will be handled by Deen Grant, who will be assisted by Ron Bueno. Artistic lighting will be directed by Ernest Drescher, a past president of the Folk Dance Federation of California Inc. In addition to approximately 400 dancers I am grateful for the assistance of a fine staff, who will aid me in bringing to a reality the ultimate in cultural entertainment.

Remember the date!

THE TWO IMMIGRANTS

By A. S. ecret D. ancer

* * * * *

Two immigrants from Nevada and Kansas have spent the major portion of their lives in California and a good number of their mature years in fostering, promoting, aiding and abetting folk dancing wherever they go in the Golden Bear State.

SHE was born in Carson Valley, Nevada, and HIS birthplace was Chanute, Kansas.

During their very tender years their families migrated to California. As fate would have it, they met in Oakland where SHE was employed as a hat designer. HE was employed as a member of the Carpenters and Joiners profession.

In the process of moving around the state, before settling down in Los Angeles, they sired five children. They since have become grandparents of seven and great-grandparents of two.

These sort of doings did not slow them down in the pursuit of social activities, the major interest being ballroom dancing, which they had a mind to do at least twice a week.

Then, in 1950, folk dancing reared its head.

An advertisement in a local paper stated that a beginners' class in folk dancing was starting at Glendale Jr. High School. That was 1950.

After getting a taste of folk dancing, they were hooked and became addicts, and ballroom dancing lost a fine pair of dancers. Ballroom dancing's loss was the Federation South's gain, as this energetic pair gave their all in every direction. They joined clubs; became very active in them; participated in the administration thereof; volunteered for almost anything.

For the Federation SHE has served as recording secretary, historian, treasurer, and for the past umpteen years, as corresponding secretary.

The HE member, for the Federation, has been chairman of beginners' classes, chairman of teacher training, institute chairman, director of extensions, vice-president, and as a grand finale, president.

That was, and is, the extent of their official Federation duties with titles. It doesn't however stop there.

Who has handled costume parades? Who handled the costume preparation and presentation at Universal Studios? Who helps in the preparation of the Federation calendar? Who helps other officers and committee chairmen in the quick dispatch of their duties? Who? Who? SHE does!

And what does HE do outside official capacities? At all times HE will stop whatever is being done at that time to answer anyone's questions on almost any facet of the folk-dance movement. HE is the one you usually see up front fiddling around with records, tapes, microphones, wires and any or all sound equipment. HE, indeed, is a sound man in so many ways.

SHE and HE have, together, lent themselves, their abilities and their home for whatever good purpose has needed attention.

HE, presently, is seriously considering retiring. But that is retiring from his job as millwright. It seems that there are so many things to be done, that working for a salary is taking up too much valuable time.

Now that you have read all the specifications and qualifications, gazed at the picture accompanying this dissertation it is hoped that you know the subjects.

If not, I feel ashamed for you. 'Cause everybody knows our two important immigrants--
RALPH and ELSA MILLER.

INSTITUTE - Friday, May 26

With the two teachers Frank Bacher has scheduled for the Statewide Institute, Friday evening, May 26, we know we will have a wonderful session.

Jean Sanford Patrick, who will be teaching Woe Maria's Jig and Tirn Nan Og, has been dancing and teaching in California for the past six years. During her school years in Britain she became involved in an "Old Tyme" country dance group, and in 1949, with the Scottish Country Dance Society

In 1955 Jean Patrick took her examinations, was credentialed, and her certificate is recognized by the Department of Education in the United Kingdom.

Since 1968 Mrs. Patrick has held a weekly class in Sacramento in Scottish Country Dancing and she says knowing Scottish Country Dance assures one a welcome anywhere.

Barry Glass was born in Los Angeles in 1947. He was raised in Ojai, California, where he began folk dancing at the age of 6. He studied ballet and continued folkdancing until he was 13.

Mr. Glass understudied Rubi Vuceta and taught classes with her until her death last year in Yugoslavia. He has taught many institutes in California, traveled in the Balkans, researched and studied with leading members of the LADO and Koutev Ensembles. Six years ago he joined Aman Folk Ensemble and is now Assistant Dance Director of the Ensemble.

Barry Glass will be teaching Pandago, a West African dance, Rezijanka I, a dance from Slovenia, and Svatovska Polka, a wedding dance of Slovenia.

PICNIC - Saturday, May 27

A picnic -- Italian style-- sounds like something we will not want to miss, especially when it is being planned by Eldon Kane.

He and his wife, Frances, have masterminded many other picnics, and they have all been great!

All food will be Italian and all activities will have an Italian theme. The planned program will start at 10:00 am sharp. The main meal will be served at 12:00 noon and dancing will start at 1:30 pm continuing until 5:00 pm.

Cold drinks and coffee will be available to ticket holders all afternoon.

Please wear an Italian costume, if you have one, or wear bright colors, with red, blue and green predominating.

Eldon suggests we brush up on Italian dances, as as many as possible will be put on the program.

Pre-registration price for the picnic is $1.25 for adults and 50¢ for children. Remember we cannot guarantee a lunch for you unless you pre-register!

The location of the picnic will be at William Land Park.

The picnic lunch will be served between 12 and 1:30 pm.

Costumes of Czechoslovakia

THE COSTUME OF HORNAČKO, SOUTH MORAVIA

By Richard Duree

The costume shown in this issue is a contemporary summer costume from the village of Hornačko in South Moravia. It is ideal for general dancing and there is little difference between the costume of the younger and older members of the village. The musicians of Hornačko are the finest in Moravia, and it was this costume, which the Moravian Folk Music Orchestra "Broln" wore in their recent performance in the United States

Man's Costume

The trousers are of a light blue-gray fabric, probably light wool, cut in the typical manner with the front flap closure, legs cut straight, being neither very full nor very tight, and tucked into knee-high black boots. A medium blue braid trims the front opening and the side seams of the legs; the loops in various places (note the sketch) are filled with a red center edged with white braid or embroidery. A studded 1 inch leather belt is worn loosely, wound two or three times around the waist, under the flap.

The shirt is of white cotton with either capped, full sleeves gathered into a cuff, or straight sleeves ending with no cuff, but about a 10" opening. A half-inch standup collar is embroidered in dark blue. The neck opening is off center to the right, and the collar embroidery follows it for about 3". A very fine geometric pattern may extend further, nearly to the waist. A 1" white silk ribbon is tied in a bow knot, and fastened at the throat with the ends reaching to the waist.

The richly decorated waistcoat is of sky blue velvet, edged with red and white braid. The design on the back is embroidered in clear colors of red, yellow, green and white, using mostly chain and satin stitches. Often the owner's initials, or the date were embroidered into the center of the design.

The hat is of black or dark blue felt. The crown is encircled to the top with embroidered ribbons and embellished with a flower, a sprig of green herb and a long feather won as a prize in combats with other village youth. An embroidered handkerchief, worn tucked through the front flap of the trousers, and an embroidered ribbon hanging from the jacket collar, are worn proudly as gifts of affection from the girl.

Woman's Costume

The skirt and apron are of cotton; the skirt usually of a solid yellow color, the apron of white with a floral print or plain trim at the bottom, with two rows of light blue braid about 4" apart. Both skirt and apron are knife pleated. A shift-like garment is worn underneath extending 2 or 3 inches below the skirt hem. A 3" red ribbon ties around the waist with the ends hanging nearly to the hem of the apron in front.

The blouse is of white cotton and is constructed as shown. The collar is edged with a dark blue lace and decorated for about half its width with stylized floral, geometric or animal designs in soft rose pink, yellow and green. The ruffled cuff is edged in a blanket stitch of rose pink. The blouse does not reach to the waist; the undergarment shows in front. A 2" wide strip of embroidery carries the collar's motif to the sleeve cap.

The bodice is of velvet, usually a dark shade of green, blue or red, and trimmed with 2 to 4 rows of 1" gold ribbon, each showing about 1/4" of the velvet to show between. The front is held together by a rose-colored cord just beneath the bust.

The small cap shown is used for dancing. It is embroidered vertically along the crown in geometric patterns. The bottom corners are tied under the hair; the upper edge is folded back and the corners tucked under the bottom knot. More complicated types of headwear are often worn for various occasions, but this is the most useful for dance.

APPLE BLOSSOM FESTIVAL

SEBASTOPOL

APRIL 7-8-9, 1972

ALL FOLK DANCERS and spectators are invited to a wonderful afternoon and evening of dancing at the "APPLE BLOSSOM FESTIVAL" at Sebastopol, on April 9.

The dancing will be held at the Veteran's Memorial Building, located right in the heart of the town. The festivities will start on Friday and continue through Sunday. Guided tours for the camera bug, an art and flower show at the Auditorium, and a barbeque at Ives Park will be here for your pleasure.

Folk dancing will start at 1:30 Sunday afternoon. In the evening there will be more dancing at the Brook Haven School just a short distance away, with an all request program for your enjoyment.

Circle your Folk Dance Costume Calendar around the dates of April 7, 8 and 9, so your family can enjoy a Springtime Festival in "Apple Pie Country".

The Party Planner

"GONE FISHING!"

Since the fishing season officially opens in May, why not feature a "Gone Fishing" theme for one of your parties.

There will surely be a number of fishing enthusiasts in your group, who would be willing to offer some of their equipment as decorative props.

Nets draped across the walls and ceiling of your dance hall will add to the "atmosphere". These can be purchased at Cost Plus and Discount Houses. Paper fish of all colors and description may be purchased in the Japanese and Chinese sections of your city. Bits of coral or dried starfish can be tied to the nets to add color.

If you would like to make your own fish mobile, follow the instructions given below.

You might include a variety of fish, crab or shrimp sandwiches for your refreshments for the evening. Various sizes of shells, if available, could be used as serving dishes.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAKING A MOBILE

Draw a simple fish pattern 18 x 9 inches.

Trace fish design on right side of paper.

Trace same design on wrong side of second sheet.

Paste wrong sides together 1" all around, leaving the fish hollow. After fish is pasted together, stuff lightly with crinkled tissue paper.

Trim the mouth area with red paper and add fins.

To hang, attach wire to center of back.

Suggested material: Sheets of gift wrap paper or aluminum foil.

FOR MORE ENJOYABLE DANCING

BREAKING THE ICE - - - WITH BEGINNERS

All of us know by experience the magic effect of words of appreciation and encouragement.

A smile for a newcomer, a handshake, words of welcome -- all these little things mean a lot to a beginner.

Invite a couple you've never seen before to dance with you and your dancing partner. An exchange of partners will give the beginners, in some cases, more confidence. There are occasions when this exchange is not welcome. My husband and I one time thought we would help a new couple, by exchanging partners, to learn a new dance. We were told in no uncertain terms that the gentleman(?) came to the class to dance only with his partner and not someone else.

PERSPIRATION IS INEVITABLE, BUT - - - - -

A bath or shower before the dance, and the use of a deodorant has been added, will make the evening more enjoyable for all. With all the TV and magazine advertising there is no excuse for anyone not realizing the cause of and remedy for perspiration. There are non-perfumed and scented deodorants available to both men and women. Use them!

Shirts and blouses should be worn only once and then popped into the washing machine. Perspiration clings to material if clothing is worn too long between washings.

Personal cleanliness is important as a courtesy to other dancers.

DELI BEČAR

(Macedonia)

Deli Bečar (DEH-lee BEH-char) is a line dance from the village of Dračevo, near Skopje, Yugoslavia. It was taught to Atanas Kolarovski by his uncle, Milo Kolarov, an outstanding kaval player from Dračevo. Atanas first presented the dance in the United States at the 1971 University of the Pacific Folk Dance Camp.

MUSIC: Record: Worldtone WT-LP-64-701, Side 2, Band 1.

FORMATION: Short lines of M and W. Belt hold, with L arm over, R arm under.

STEPS AND STYLING: Walk*, run*, hop*, jump*, leap*

4 Run fwd 3 small steps L,R,L (cts 1,&,2). (Like a running two-step.)
5-16 Repeat action of meas 1-4 (Fig III) 3 times (4 times in all).

- 1 Lift on L, turning to face ctr (ct 1), step sdwd R to R, (ct &), step L behind R (ct 2). (Cue: Lift-side-behind.)
2 Leap R to R, at same time with bent L knee swing L ft diag bkwd L (ct 1); hop R, at same time with bent knee swing L ft across in front of R (ct 2). L ft swings bkwd and fwd - across from the bent L knee, with relatively little upper leg motion.
3 Face LOD and jump on both ft (knees bent and together) R ft in front of L (ct 1); face ctr and leap sdwd R on R, raising L across in front of R (ct 2). (Cue: Jump-leap.)
4 Still facing ctr, step L to L (ct 1), step R beside L (ct &), step L across R (ct 2).
5-8 Repeat action of meas 1-4 (Fig IV).

- 1 Hop on L, extending R fwd (ct 1), step R to R (ct &), step L beside R (ct 2). (Cue: Hop-step-step.)
2-3 Repeat action of meas 1 (Fig V) two times (3 times in all).
4 Step R beside L, at same time extending L fwd near floor (ct 1), step L beside R, at same time extending R fwd near floor (ct &), step R beside L, at same time extending L fwd near floor (ct 2).
These are 3 small scissors steps done in place. As an alternate, 3 small steps may be done in place without scissor action.
5-8 Repeat action of meas 1-4 (Fig V) using opp ftwork and direction.

FIGURE VI

- 1-8 Repeat action of Fig IV, meas 1-8.

FIGURE VII

- 1-8 Repeat action of Fig V, meas 1-8.

FIGURE VIII

- 1-8 Repeat action of Fig IV, meas 1-8, ending with R raised in front across L, knee bent.

- RHYTHM: The music is in 7/16 meter (1-2-3, 1-2, 1-2) counted as 3 beats, with the first beat accented by holding it a little longer -- 1,2,3 (SQQ)
- FORMATION: Broken circle, hands joined and held at shoulder height, elbows bent. Leader at R end twirls handkerchief.
- STEPS AND STYLING: Walk (uneven rhythm), Lift: With wt on one ft elevate by raising the heel (upbeat) and come down by lowering heel to floor (downbeat). A lift is similar to a hop except that the ft does not leave the floor. When raising one leg in front of the other (meas 4,5,6,8), M make a higher and more exaggerated movement than W.

WORDS

*Vie se vie oro Makedonsko,
 Golem sobor mi se sobral kraj Vardarot.
 Chorus) Oro i pesna, sonce i ljubov,
 Toa e naša Makedonija.
 Siot narod se nasobral Makedonski
 Pregmatil bratski da se razveselat.
 Chorus)
 Dali gledaš mило Skopje, dali slušaš,
 Kakve Makedonska pesna se pee?
 Chorus)*

TRANSLATION

The Macedonian "oro" twines, twines,
 A great crowd has gathered by the Vardar (River).
 Chorus) Dance and song, sunshine and love --
 That is our Macedonia.
 All the Macedonian people have gathered
 Like brothers to make merry.
 Chorus)
 Do you see, dear Skopje, do you hear
 What Macedonian song is sung?
 Chorus)

GEORGE TOMOV

FEATURED SOLO DANCER OF THE JUGOSLAVIAN NATIONAL FOLK BALLET COMPANIES, TANEC & LADO, ANNOUNCES
HIS FIRST UNITED STATES & CANADIAN TEACHING TOUR

GEORGE TOMOV, from Skopje, Macedonia, has performed and instructed Yugoslavian Folk Dancing throughout the world.

This young, dynamic artist is one of the few performers who excels, not only in his own craft, but also in the art of teaching - getting across to the students the joy of expression in Yugoslavian Folk Dancing. Whether teaching groups or individuals, George Tomov is a delightful and very gifted instructor in all phases of choreography; social folk dancing and costuming.

George Tomov's workshops and master classes at universities, clubs, schools, organizations and folk dance groups, have won him international recognition.

Mr. Tomov is available as Resident Instructor (class or individual) or solo dance performer. The fees are modest and are based on size of class and duration of sessions and course. Contact Albert Kay Associates, Inc., 38 West 53rd Street, New York, N.Y. 10019, for definite scheduling and additional information. He is available as follows:

Two of Kathy Vinokur's favorite cake recipes she serves the many hungry folk dancers who attend Marcel Vinokur's classes.

KARITHOPITA
(Greek Walnut Cake)

- 2 cups (1 box) Zwiebach (ground fine)
- 1-1/2 cups walnuts (ground coarse)
- 3 tsp. baking powder

Mix above ingredients together

- | | |
|----------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 cube butter | 1 oz. brandy |
| 2 cups sugar | 12 egg whites (beaten very stiff) |
| 12 egg yolks | 1/2 tsp. cinnamon |
| 1 tsp. almond flavor | 1/2 tsp. nutmeg |
| 1 tsp. vanilla | |

Make the following syrup before proceeding with the recipe, so that it will cool:

- 2 cups sugar
- 2 cups water
- juice of 1 lemon

Simmer 15 minutes and cool

Melt butter. Add sugar and egg yolks. Beat well for 5 minutes. Add dry ingredients and flavorings, mixing well. Fold in egg whites. Use a large, well greased pan. Bake at 325° for 35 to 40 minutes. Pour syrup over cake immediately after removing from oven. Cover with aluminum foil.

This cake keeps well. Cut into small squares - makes about 30-40 pieces.

CRAZY CHOCOLATE CAKE

Dry ingredients:

- 6-3/4 quarts sifted flour
- 5 quarts sugar
- 2-1/4 cups cocoa
- 3 Tbsp. Salt
- 6 Tbsp. baking soda

Sift flour. Measure and sift with remaining ingredients. Mix thoroughly with wire whip or mixer. Store in jar or tin. Keeps indefinitely. The dry ingredients make 7 cakes.

- | | | |
|-----------------------|-------------------|-----------------|
| For one cake : | 7 cups dry mix | 1 Tbsp. vanilla |
| | 1 cup oil | 3 Tbsp. vinegar |
| | 3 cups cold water | |

WESTWOOD CO-OPERATIVE FOLK DANCERS

WESTWOOD'S big affair of the year will be our 27th Annual Folk Dance Festival to be held at the Culver City Veterans Memorial Auditorium, Culver Blvd. and Overland, Sunday afternoon, from 1:30 to 5:30 pm, April 23. We have planned an excellent dance program for your pleasure, and a number of fine exhibitions. We expect to have the GANDY DANCERS, WESTWIND, LIBERTY ENSEMBLE and the SCOTTISH DANCE ENSEMBLE.

After the festival, join us for the after party which will take place at the Santa Monica Elks Club, 1155-21st St, Santa Monica. There will be a roast beef buffet, at $4.50 per person. Please make reservations early. Mail your checks, before April 15, to the "Westwood After Party Committee", c/o Claire Bernstein, 10559 Valparaiso St., Apt. 3, Los Angeles 90034, 837-1309, or Frances Slater, 9121 Airdrome St., Los Angeles, 90035, 556-3791.

New member of Westwood Council is JANET FOOTE, who has attended three council meetings and is now a voting member of Westwood. Janet is also our new co-chairman for Membership. She is finishing the unexpired term of office for EUNICE UDELF who left last week on sabbatical for a six-month trip around the world.

Members of Westwood, and other groups, will be interested in another Dance Weekend at Harwood Lodge at Mt. Baldy. Sierra Club members $7.00; others $7.50. Saturday, lunch and dinner; Sunday, breakfast and lunch. Early reservations are advised, since only a limited number can be accepted. Make reservations with Daphne Sturrock, 3638 Midvale Ave., #6, Los Angeles, 90034, 839-8010.

RINNCEOIRI NA HEIREANN

The Dancers of Ireland hope everyone had a wonderful St. Patrick's Day. We celebrated with our friends at the Ukrainian Culture Center.

Disneyland has given the dancers a special plaque for taking part in each year's parade, representing Ireland for the past 17 years.

EDITH STEVENSON reports the classes at the present time consist of about ten children, but she formerly taught around 2000 a week.

GATEWAYS

We had a very attentive and responsive group when ED FELDMAN and I went to GATEWAYS a few weeks ago. It seems we had as good a time dancing with our new friends as they had with us. It is a very rewarding experience, as all of us who participate have found out. RUTH and JESSE OSER, AL and KAY DOBRINSKY, BERTHA and DAVID GOLD, EVELYN LANE, VIRGINIA and MARTIN BLUST, FRANCES SCHLEIFER and the MEDINAS are a few who have given of their time and efforts. If anyone is interested in joining us, contact any of the above named.

THIS AND THAT

Had a nice time at JUDY and DANI DASSA's new adult night club -- JERICHO. It is tastefully decorated (Dani's touch) and includes beautiful stained glass windows and an interesting chandelier mobile - in the style of the Walls of Jericho. The food is delicious. The music by David Murdoch, who plays the drums, and Jack Ohlman, who plays the piano and sings, keeps you dancing or tapping your toes all evening. David Dor, from Jerusalem, is the featured singer; he entertains with all your favorite songs. MARIA REISCH and JOSE FAGET entertained with Mexican dances the evening we were there. David and Jack play music for your ballroom dancing pleasure, or rock or folk or Israeli dancing. David Dor sings in many languages. Jericho is highly recommended for a fun place.

We attended the monthly party given by the ROYAL SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCE SOCIETY. It turned out to be a birthday party for STEWART SMITH and a "Welcome" to MARY BRANDON's brother, RODGER SHOOLBRAID who has just arrived from Scotland.

Heard many wonderful things about the HOLLYWOOD PEASANTS' recent Chinese dinner party. At this party, a magnificent film, graciously loaned to the Peasants by AMAN, and showing authentic dances of the Jews of Yemen just after their arrival in Israel in 1948 and 1952, was viewed by the guests.

THE MORE THE MERRIER FOLK DANCERS' Mardi Gras party was a huge success due to the efforts of NORMA and HANS ZANDER and their many willing helpers. Their Third Saturday parties are always very interesting.

WEDDING BELLS: MARTI GUNZBURG and JOHN BURGER announced their engagement and plan to be married later in Spring. John is a nuclear engineer and received his Masters degree at Berkeley. Marti, who loves to dance, attends various groups in the area many of the folk dance camps, is trying to get John more interested in dancing.

COUNCIL CLIPS

GREATER EAST BAY FOLK DANCE COUNCIL

SWING 'N' CIRCLE FOLK DANCERS celebrated 25 years of club activity in a party at the Blue Dolphin in San Leandro, Saturday evening, March 4. New president of the club is JAMES A. DE PAOLI, with CLIFF and LOU REES, vice-president; ALICE HARMAN, secretary; and FLOYD and AGNES BOYLE, treasurer.

"Holiday in Venice" was the theme of the 23rd annual spring festival presented by the EAST BAY WOMEN'S DANCE CIRCLE on March 23. MARGARET MITCHELL was in charge of the arrangements.

A spectacular Mini Concert, presented by JR. DANCERS INTERNATIONAL, and directed by MILLIE von KONSKY, was enjoyed by Bay Area folk dancers. The concert proceeds will become part of a costume fund for the small dancers.

SAN LEANDRO CIRCLE-UP FOLK DANCERS celebrated their 23rd anniversary with a party at Bancroft Junior High School, on March 18.

JANE COOK of the BERKELEY folk dancers, received the endorsement of the GREATER EAST BAY COUNCIL as a scholarship candidate for Stockton Folk Dance Camp. Jane, who is the lovely daughter of EVE and BILL LANDSTRA, is planning to be a teacher.

Flying for the first time, SCOTTY STRUTHERS, a BERKELEY FOLK DANCER traveled to Texas, Louisiana and Colorado to see his 4 children, 14 grandchildren and first greatgrandchild.

MARIN DANCE COUNCIL

We are particularly proud of our KOPACHKA DANCERS who participated in the outstanding concert at Cañada College. presented by the WESTWINDS. These beautiful dancers were LARRY MODELL, JUDY MODELL, SUSAN PRATT, PEGGY THURSTON, MARIO VLAKOVIC, CONNIE AYERS, MARILYN BARRETT, RICH GIBBONS, SEAN HOPPER, LORI LIEDERMAN, CHRISTINE LOWRY, BEVERLY MANN.

We are all proud of JERRY HAUCKE, of the KOPACHKAS, who not only has time for his job and dancing, but is running for a second term as City Councilman for the city of Mill Valley.

At a recent meeting of the WHIRL-A-WAYS of MARIN, JOE and MARIE ANGELI announced their retirement as club instructors in June 1972. ARLENE CORNO will assume the position of instructor on a three-month basis. AL CRAIG and INEZ O'DELL, as club president and secretary, are doing a mammoth job of reorganizing the club.

The Marin Scholarship Committee voted, with Council approval, to henceforth offer scholarships to any Federation Teacher Training Program. The first winner was AUDREY FIFIELD to the recent training program at La Honda.

ROMI DREXLER has a folk dance program with the elderly and is contemplating starting a dance program with retarded children.

Just a reminder!!! Marin's President's Ball is on April 8 at Park School in Mill Valley, with a Balkan hour and general folk dancing. Wearing of costumes would be appreciated. The theme is "In a Continental Garden" with a live garden and a gazebo.

A tentative date is June 11 for a council picnic, open to all dancers, at the Cheese Factory picnic grounds in Novato.

REDWOOD COUNCIL

SANTA ROSA FOLK DANCERS meet once a week on Tuesday evenings, at Franklin Clubhouse. On Thursday evenings they sponsor a basic class for beginners.

DELBERT CAHILL and BONNIE BARRON first met at Franklin Club House, at a folk dance party. They decided they would like to be married among the folk dancers they loved. Their wedding took place on January 29, at a Redwood Folk Dance Council party sponsored by the PETALUMA INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCERS. The party was held at Schaal Hall, on Main Street in Vineburg.

Folk dance parties are held at Schaal Hall, in Vineburg on the 1st, 3rd, 4th and 5th Saturdays. 5th Saturday parties are Council events.

A DEDICATED FOLK DANCE PROMOTER

A very gracious and charming lady, who is dedicated to folk dancing and folk dancers, has earned high praise from the Napa Recreation and Parks Department for her fantastic First Napa Festival.

After working several months in advance convincing the City Commissioners of the interest in folk dancing in Napa County and publicizing the event throughout the northern part of California, June Schaal succeeded in packing a huge building in the Napa Fairgrounds with folk dancers, exhibition groups and spectators, who remained until the last folk dancers left and proved to all concerned that one little gal could put it over.

As if June Schaal were not busy enough in her own section of Napa and Sonoma, she was invited to be guest teacher at Vyts Beliajus' 30th year Anniversary Celebration at Denver, Colorado on March 18, and will be back in California to assist in any way she can at the Apple Blossom Festival, in Sebastopol, masterminded by Dee Rossi, and on April 10 will leave for Finland for a three-month combined vacation and teaching schedule in schools, colleges and private classes under the sponsorship of Finland Records. Her itinerary includes Holland and Belgium.

SACRAMENTO COUNCIL OF FOLK DANCE CLUBS

The Thursday Night Beginners Class at Clunie Clubhouse has a new instructor - - MARY SCHEIDT. The Tuesday Night class continues under the leadership of JIM and IRENE OXFORD. Both classes are well attended with some very enthusiastic dancers.

LOS TARASCOS is a new club recently added to the Council membership. This club will specialize in Mexican dances, as well as other international folk dances, for exhibition. The instructors are BEVERLY FIELD and CARLOS SANCHEZ. The officers are MANUEL CASTANADA, president; RICK DERR, vice president; FELICIA MILLER, secretary. The club meets each Monday at the Sierra Elementary School.

If all the festival habitués have missed seeing HENRY ZARET, it is because he has been hospitalized with a heart attack. He will need all our thoughts of get well wishes to return him to the dancing floor in a few months. Also, on the sick list is ZENAIDE GRIGSBY, wife of instructor KELLIS, who is better now, but not completely recovered. We hope to see Henry and Zenaide back dancing soon with their many friends.

The annual Scholarship Ball will be held April 29 at the Tahoe School. A donation of $1.00 will help this worthwhile project to aid future and active teachers attend authorized folk dance camps. Again, prizes will be given to the lucky number holders. TERRY HAGEN who won the scholarship award last year, will be chairman of the committee in charge of the Ball. The committee members are GEORGE MARKS, MARY SCHIEDT, LISA WHITTIER, MARY CRAIG, WEE STEUBER and JOHN SHONERD.

All Council officers, Camellia Festival committee members and exhibition dancers are relaxing after another successful Festival, but not for long with STATEWIDE on the horizon, May 26-27-28.

PENINSULA COUNCIL OF FOLK DANCE CLUBS

Many "Sadie Hawkins Gals" were seen at the DOCEY DO February "Dog Patch Hop". The "men-folk" were attired in their best overalls. Highlight of the evening was a Hog and Square Dance calling contest. DON KIRK was the one and only "hog" caller. LINDA MARTIN, chairman of the evening, led those assembled in an interesting "Siberian Hug" game. Well, there is always a lot of fun at those DOCEY DO parties.

You are all invited to the Council's Fifth Saturday Party "Spring Fling", April 29, sponsored by the BARRONADERS. It will be held at the Powell School, Leghorn and Independence, in Mt. View.

KATHY VINOKUR was recently featured, with many of her "folk dance" recipes, on the front page of the Palo Alto Times' weekly food page. One of her specialties is a rich Greek Walnut Cake. (Refer to page 29 for this recipe.) Kathy is the wife of MARCEL VINOKUR, who has been teaching on the Peninsula for the last fifteen years. At the present time he teaches Balkan-Israeli dancing at the Menlo Park Recreation Center, Foothill College, and has had some classes at U.C. in Santa Cruz.

There will be a U. C. Folk Dance Festival, in Berkeley, April 14 to 16, 1972 (Friday through Sunday, sponsored by the U.C. Folk Dancers. There will be four master teachers featured, in the Hearst Gym. On Saturday night there will be a party in the Pauley Ballroom.

Advance Registration is required for Workshops. The party is open - $1.50 charge.

For further information, contact U.C. Folk Dancers, 200 Hearst Gym, U.C., Berkeley, 94720.

An error has been brought to my attention. On page 40 of the February issue of LET'S DANCE, at the top of the page it says that the Costume Display will be held on JUNE 28. It really should have said MAY 28. Please make a note of the correct date. Thank you. We hope we'll see you at Sacramento during the STATEWIDE FESTIVAL, May 26, 27 and 28, 1972.

As of this moment, although in intensive care, Jack McKay is resting easily at the Kaiser Hospital in Sacramento, after a mild heart attack Saturday night, March 11, at the home of Bruce Mitchell. Folk dancers everywhere wish him a speedy recovery.

Place the 7 cups of mix in a large sheet cake pan or roasting pan. Form 3 holes in mix. (Do not grease pan). Into center of large hole, place oil. In one small hole place vanilla. In remaining hole place vinegar. Add 3 cups water; stir 'til blended. Do not beat!

Bake in 375° oven for 35 minutes, or until toothpick comes out dry from center of cake. Cut into small pieces.
