Bio: Choreographer

Ira Weisburd is an award winning, internationally recognized choreographer, choreographing dances for recreational Folk and Line Dancers for more than 40 years !! He is unique in that his background in all kinds of music from around the world has enabled him to create an amazing wide variety of circle and line dances, many of which have become instant classics, on the must do playlists of hundreds of groups.

He has a huge following throughout ASIA, EUROPE, USA and ISRAEL. He made his mark on the world of Israeli folk dancing with BOI MALKA back in 1985. Since then he has choreographed dances with legendary choreographers from ISRAEL including Yoav Ashriel (Hassapico Sympatico), Gadi Bitton (Touch the Floor) and Eli Ronen (Hassapico Mozart). Ira was the first non-ISRAELI to be recognized as an Israeli Folk Dance Choreographer. His dance SHUJ SHUJ ZEMER took 6th place out of more than 200 dances in the RIKUD HASHANA (2005 Dance of the Year Competition). In 2006, his dance SONATA took 1st place in the same competition. His dance CUMBIA SEMANA hit the top of the charts when first introduced and continues to be a favorite to this day.

He also won the prestigious "Dancer's Choice Award" for the 2010 Dancer's Friend of the Year and the 2013-14 Male Instructor of the Year in Las Vegas !!

Ira enjoys a combined Facebook and Youtube following of 13,000 subscribers !!

He is regularly invited to give workshops in cities across the U.S., Canada, Tai-wan, Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia, Australia, New Zealand, Nether-lands, Germany, France, Reunion Island, Mauritius & Bulgaria.

He also has taught at several major Folk Dance Events including the Annual San Antonio Folk Dance Festival, Hora Shalom Israeli Dance Camp in Perth, West-ern Australia, Annual Hess Kramer Folk Dance Weekend in Malibu, California, the Annual Dance Away Folk Dance Weekend in the Netherlands, Hawaii Line Dance Festival in Honolulu, Hawaii, Mayworth (Australia's Largest Line Dance Festival).
